presents:

Working Equitation with José MC Lopes

April 8th, 2016

José MC Lopes, an international Working Equitation, Portuguese Equitation, and Lusitano judge from Portugal, who has officiated over Working Equitation and Lusitano Shows across America and Europe will be instructing this highly educational clinic prior to judging the Working Equitation Competition on Saturday and Sunday. During the clinic, riders will work with José in private lessons to hone their Dressage and Ease of Handling skills. This is a very special opportunity to ride with one of the founders of the sport of Working Equitation!

Whether you are already competing, or are new to Working Equitation, join us for an informative and fun clinic! Space is limited. To sign up as a participant or an auditor, please fill out the attached registration form and return to Adrianna: adrianna@aaequestrian.com or 586 N. Refugio Road, Santa Ynez, CA 93460.
